

TYA Stock Contract

2025 – 2028

Both the Theatre and the Playwright agree that each and every clause contained in the Playwrights Guild of Canada/Professional Association of Canadian Theatres Standard Clauses is part of this Contract. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Contract and the terms set forth in the Standard Clauses, the terms in the Standard Clauses will prevail. When signed by both parties, this Contract with all modifications, together with the Standard Clauses, constitutes a legal binding Agreement.

No clause in this Contract may be deleted or altered without the mutual consent of both parties.

In the case of additional agreement requirements, the use of Riders is encouraged. Please contact your member organization for guidance, if required.

between _____
(hereinafter called the Playwright)

(address of Playwright)

(Playwright email address)

And _____
(hereinafter called the Theatre)

(address of Theatre)

(Theatre email address)

WHEREAS the Playwright is the author (or authors) and sole owner(s) of a certain Play entitled (hereinafter called the Play);

AND WHEREAS the Theatre wishes to produce and publicly perform or arrange for the production and public performance of the Play;

Playwrights Guild of Canada
Professional Association of Canadian Theatres

IT IS HEREBY AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Right to Produce

The Playwright grants to the Theatre the right to mount a production of the Play in a location or region as indicated and mutually agreed to below:

or

on a Theatre for Young Audience tour (anticipated geographical area): _____

within the dates specified below:

from _____, 20____ (date)

to _____, 20____ (date).

The parties hereto agree that if, due to unforeseen circumstances, these dates cannot be met, the right to produce will be extended a further period of up to 30 (thirty) days from the stated date of the first public performance. If the Theatre cannot open the Play within this 30- (thirty-) day period, Clause 3 will apply.

2. Royalties

Mainstage TYA Performance and Tour

Royalties shall be paid by the Theatre to the Playwright at a rate to be agreed upon by the parties, based on a percentage of the certified gross box office receipts, not including credit card charges, group sales commissions, and all sales tax, goods and services or similar government taxes. There shall be no other deductions unless approved by the PGC/PACT Joint Standing Committee.

- a) For TYA Mainstage performances while on tour (not school tours) where the Theatre is not in control of the box-office, the Playwright will receive a _____% royalty of the presentation fee.
- b) For Mainstage performances where the Theatre is in control of the box office (i.e., deriving its revenue from single ticket sales), the Playwright will receive _____% of the gross box office revenue.

School Tour

On a Theatre for Young Audience school tour the agreed minimum fee per performance is

$_____.

See Standard Clause 4 for the agreed fee per school or flat fee performance minimums by year.

In circumstances where more than one person is involved in the creation of the work, a rider stipulating the payment of the total creators' royalty shall be attached to this Contract.

Playwrights Guild of Canada
Professional Association of Canadian Theatres

The Theatre guarantees that a minimum royalty of $ _____ will be paid to the Playwright, and that such guaranteed minimum shall be based on the potential royalties as projected by the Theatre in accordance with the current experience and expectations at the Theatre's venue.

This Guarantee shall be paid in the following manner:

- a) $ _____ upon signing of this Agreement;
- b) $ _____ upon the first day of rehearsal;
- c) $ _____ upon the day of the opening performance.

Payments will be made out to:

This Guarantee shall be an advance against royalties and shall not be refunded in the event the Play is not produced within the time period referred to herein under Clause 1, or if the amount of royalties to be paid in terms of this Contract does not equal the basic guaranteed minimum.

The balance of royalties shall be paid by the Theatre to the Playwright according to the schedule as follows:

For Theatre for Young Audience tours, the first royalty payment shall be made no later than the 15th working day of the month following the first paid performance. Royalty payments shall be made at least every 90 (ninety) days thereafter.

Full payment of royalties shall be made no later than 30 (thirty) days following the end of the run of the Play. The Theatre shall furnish the Playwright with a duly certified weekly statement of the box office receipts and/or presentation fees at the same time that royalties are paid. In the case of repertory theatre, 8 (eight) performances shall constitute one week. In the case of a Theatre for Young Audience tour, the Theatre shall furnish the Playwright with a duly certified monthly statement of the box office or performance fee receipts at the same time as the royalties are paid.

Any payments made more than 60 (sixty) days after the due date(s), which includes the Guarantee payment schedule, are subject to a 2% (two percent) per month penalty starting from the due date and continuing until paid in full.

3. Extension of the Right to Produce

In the event that the Theatre does not produce the Play by _____ (date), the Theatre may by mutual agreement with the Playwright extend its rights for a further period of _____ months at a time, upon payment of a fee of $ _____ per month. The final payment for extension of rights shall be accepted by the Playwright as a non-returnable, recoupable advance against royalties.
